Notices of the Press.

The Bazar is edited with a contribution of tact and talent that we seldom find in any journal; and the journal itself is the organ of the great world of fashion--Boston Traveler.

The Bazar commends itself to every man and every woman, to the young ladies by its elegant and pretentious, to the young men by its vices, to the fathers by its taste and its designs for embroidered slippers and luxurious dressing-gowns. But the reading-matter of the Bazar is uniformly of great excellence.

The paper has acquired a wide popularity for the fireside enjoyment it affords.--N. Y. Evening Post.

THE

NEW YORK TRIBUNE

"The Leading American Newspaper."

FOUNDED BY HORACE GREELEY.

In the recent elections the people have declared in favor of honesty in politics and independence in journalism. THE TRIBUNE, which years ago declared that it was not and never would be a party organ, claims the verdict, as the popular vindication of its course, and recognizes in the result the voice of the people for reform and integrity in government, for candor and independence among newspapers. During the campaign which has just closed THE TRIBUNE has fully maintained its right to the title of "Leading American Newspaper." This position it has earned and retains for the following, among other reasons:

It publishes all the news, earlier, more fully, and more intelligently than any other paper.

It insists on peace throughout the whole country, the right of local self-government, and the protection of all classes in the exercise of their just and legal rights.

It advocates confidence and good feeling between North and South, and labors for an honest and abiding reconciliation.

It maintains fairness and candor toward all parties and questions, and dignity and courtesy towards associates and rivals.

It publishes scientific news, reports, discussions and discoveries to a degree of fullness and accuracy never before attained by any paper.

It gives every week ten or more columns of the most carefully prepared agricultural matter during the year, much more in the aggregate than the entire contents of any other agricultural publication, and the whole forming a department of which an eminent agricultural editor said: "It has done more to make good farmers than any other influence which ever existed."

It has published a series of scientific and literary extracts which have met a wider sale and more emphatic popular approval than any similar publication of the kind.

WHAT THE SOUTHERN PRESS SAYS OF THE TRIBUNE.

We consider THE TRIBUNE a very valuable paper.--Asheville (N. C.) Citizen.

The New York Tribune, in its faithful and searching exposure of outrage slanders on Alabama and other States, has done immense service to truth and justice.--[Macon (Ga.) Telegraph and Messenger.

We thank The New York Tribune for its manly and powerful words in denouncing justice for the people of Alabama.--[Montgomery (Ala.) News.

The best newspaper in the world is the New York Tribune. It combines the dignity and sagacity of the London Times with the representative news enterprise of America.--[Baltimore Bulletin.

A paper to be admitted for its independence of tone and its reliability of news.--[Episcopal Methodist, Baltimore, Md.

Any one who wants a first-class paper which keeps fully up with the times in literature, science and art should subscribe for THE TRIBUNE.--[Spartanburg (S. C.) Carolina Spartan.

The imperial sheet of the world, THE New York Tribune, [The Jacksonville (Fla.) New South.

We regard it as the best paper, all in all published in the United States.--[Morristown (Tenn.) Gazette.

To-day The New York Tribune is undoubtedly the first of American newspapers; whatever may be said of its rivals, it has clearly won precedence of all, and very creditably does it represent the journalism of the country. While dealing with all the topics coming within the range of a newspaper, THE Tribune makes a specialty of the great subject of agriculture. It becomes therefore a matter of vital importance to the country that the direction of the ideas of this vast section should be in able and conscientious hands, and a matter for congratulation that the farmer's newspaper par excellence has the high standing of THE TRIBUNE.--[The (N. Y.) South.

The New York Tribune is doing a great work in popularizing Science, by the publication of cheap extras to that great daily.--[Our Monthly, Clinton, S. C.

American newspaper enterprise is probably at this time more fully illustrated in the daily issues of the New York Tribune than in any other journal.--[Wilmington (N. C.) Star.

Unequaled in culture, dignity, comprehensive breadth, polish of expression and intellectual; fettered by no party ties, bolted in decency of speech, and hysteric with no wild sensations.--[Raleigh (N. C.) Agricultural Journal.

Surely the paper has maintained successfully the high popularity which he bequeathed it, and the name of an ably conducted and independent journal, which it now deserves even more justly than at any time during Mr. Greeley's life.--[Petersburg (Va.) Index and Appeal.

TERMS OF THE TRIBUNE.

Daily, by mail, $10 per year; Semi-Weekl $3 per year; five copies, $2 50 each.

Weekly, $2 per year; ten copies, $1 55 each; twenty copies, $1 10 each.
